Past continuous

I wasn't reading a book last night. Were you?

The form of negative sentences

- The form of the tense is very similar to the present continuous tense. The only difference is that we don't use the present form of the verb to be (am not, isn't, aren't) but the past form-> wasn't / weren't

Subject + wasn't / weren't + -ing + objects, adverbs
She wasn't (was not) cooking last night.
We weren't (were not) skiing yesterday afternoon.
