3. Something has just happened

 When something has just happened, we use the PPT

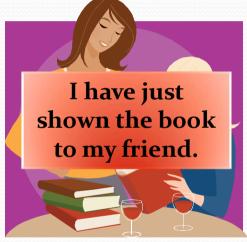

Common words are: just, recently, lately

- I have just eaten my dinner, I don't want to eat anything else.
- She has just seen a ghost. At least that's what she says.
- Have you recently finished reading a book?

3. Something has just happened

1. Form sentences about actions that have just happened:

4. Number of actions so far

• When we want to say how many times something has happened, we use the PPT

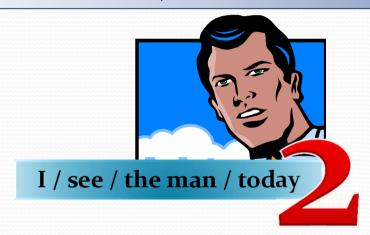

Common words are: once, twice, many times

- I have seen the movie twice already.
- He hasn't cooked not even once this week.
- Have they asked us three or four times?

4. Number of actions so far

2. Form sentences, use the numbers:

I have seen the man twice today.

Our family has been to the USA five times already.

She has read the book three times already

He and his sister has cooked a dinner once.
